Are you troubled by disparities in healthcare due to poverty and lack of health insurance?

Stand up for your patients!

Join the White Coats at the 12th Annual Moral
March on Raleigh

SATURDAY
FEBRUARY 10, 2018

Health professionals and health professions students are invited to wear their white coats or other professional garb to show support for healthcare for all and public policy that protects vulnerable patients.

The HKonJ/Moral Monday coalition brings together thousands in a peaceful demonstration to promote many issues that impact health, including healthcare for all, environmental justice, reproductive rights, strong public education, voting rights, and more!
